Reader’s theater Reflection Sheet

Name_____________________________________________________

1. What type of story did you perform?
____________________________________________________________________

2. Who were some of the main characters?
____________________________________________________________________

3. What kind of lesson or moral might the audience learn after seeing this performance?
____________________________________________________________________

4. Give an example about why you think this.
____________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

Reader’s theater Reflection Sheet

Name_____________________________________________________

1. What type of story did you perform?
____________________________________________________________________

2. Who were some of the main characters?
____________________________________________________________________

3. What kind of lesson or moral might the audience learn after seeing this performance?
____________________________________________________________________

4. Give an example about why you think this.
____________________________________________________________________