Whom do you represent?

__________________________________________________________

What is your overall goal?

__________________________________________________________

What goals (in priority order) would you also like to achieve?

__________________________________________________________

Who can help you?

__________________________________________________________

Who might oppose your approach?

__________________________________________________________

What incentives and disincentives can you offer to persuade others?

__________________________________________________________

What should be your strategy in dealing with the other parties, i.e., with whom should you speak first?

__________________________________________________________

Remember: There is no “right” or “wrong” outcome. This is not a debate in which you need to win the argument; your goal is to work together to find a workable solution. Build upon common ground and look for areas where you and other parties can agree. Where you disagree, try to create options that address the other parties’ concerns.
The following points are possible actions to be taken. Prioritize your top two choices according to your delegation’s policy position. Feel free to add actions. You will share your priorities with the other delegations in your opening statement.

• Stabilize the Darfur region and border areas of Chad so refugees can return home.

• Bring those responsible for the killings to justice.

• Bring in new business opportunities for the people of Darfur to rebuild the region’s economy.

• Implement a viable ceasefire in Darfur.

• Deliver emergency humanitarian assistance to refugees in neighboring countries and internally displaced persons in Darfur.

• Open Darfur for foreign business and tourism.

• Implement the terms of the Darfur Peace Agreement (DPA) of May 2006 or devise another political process to prevent future conflict in Darfur.
